From Selkirk take the A708 to Moffat. After about four miles you will come to a bridge on a sharp “S” bend, over the Yarrow Water; just after this is a white sign saying “YARROWFORD”. Exactly 1.2 miles further up the A708 on the right hand side of the road is the drive. You will see a sandstone block set in the dyke inscribed with ‘LEWINSHOPE’.

After about 250 yards there is a small cairn on the left hand side with a sign to The Mill. Follow the track and at the end you will see The Mill with the car park to the left.

If you are approaching from the west on the A708, our drive is on the left hand side 7 miles from the Gordon Inn (the cross roads where the B709 from Innerleithen intersects with the A708). There is a sandstone block inscribed with 'LEWINSHOPE' at the end of the drive.

(If using satnav, you’ll probably be told that you’ve arrived when you near where our drive meets the main road).
